

Home Learning Science Fair!

Science Project

This half term's Home Learning Challenge will allow the children to explore their inner scientist. We are asking the children to carry out an investigation of their choosing. Once they have planned and carried out their investigation, they should create a display to show others what they have learned. Two winners from each class will be asked to display their work ready for a summer science fair.

Stuck for ideas?

<https://sciencebob.com/category/experiments>

<http://www.sciencekids.co.nz/experiments.html>

<https://www.education.com/science-fair/elementary-school/>

If you are still stuck, speak to your class teacher!